

The Truth About Dork Diaries!

The Author

The author of Dork Diaries is

Rachel Renee Russell. She grew up in Saint Joseph, Michigan. She is not only an author, she is an attorney! She still prefers writing tween books because she can't wear bunny slippers to court. And according to her website, the Dork Diaries books are based on Rachel Renee Russell's experiences in middle school, as well as the middle school experiences of her two daughters. Her younger daughter, Nikki, helps with illustrations. She was been divorced in 2009. She once said in one of her books "Dream big dreams, because little dreams have no magic." She currently lives in northern Virginia.

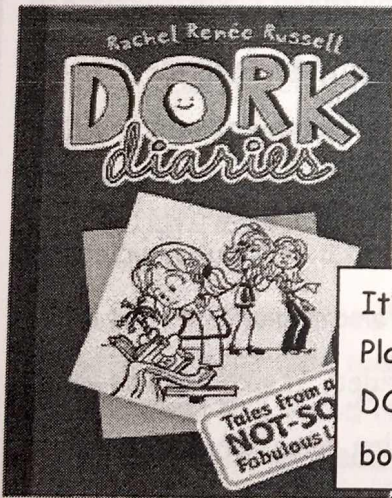

Rachel Renee Russell the big person writing this book!

You just got home from school, and you feel horrible. You pants are wet from that little "trip" you had during lunch. You feel like a TOTAL dork. What do you do? Read Dork Diaries of course! How did this come to be? Well keep reading! ☺

Dork Diaries: The Big THING!

So. . . . You want to know what Dork Diaries is all about. Well, here ya go! It's all about a 14 year old girl named Nikki Maxwell. She is the new girl at a snobby, private middle school. She cannot take the snobby girls and designer clothing. Sadly, all her mom got her was a stupid DIARY! Apparently, her mom is BRAIN DEAD! So now, all she has is her diary and her two BFFs Chloe and Zoey. Being the new girl is tough. It's a good think she has a diary. So Nikki can spill all about it. She loves to draw. And she beat Mackenzie's butt in her school's avant garde art competition.
