

EVALUATION: The World of the Maya

	Exemplary 8 –10 points	Accomplished 5 –7 points	Developing 1 –4 points	Points
Research	You showed great skill in researching Mayan culture! You provided excellent details for the worksheet questions, which demonstrated that you understood the material.	Your research was solid, and you completed the worksheet. Greater detail would have improved your worksheet and showed that you had a complete understanding of the material.	Good start! You conducted research and completed most of the worksheet. You needed to provide more facts and details. With practice, you will learn to focus your research on the assigned task.
Group Collaboration	You are an extremely effective team! You listened to each other's ideas, made suggestions, and remained focused and positive. You divided the work fairly and also made constructive remarks to your team members on how to improve their part of the presentation.	You have what it takes to make a great team. Try to motivate and support every member to get full participation! You also could have provided more constructive comments on how your team members could improve their part of the presentation.	Team skills develop with practice. Each member needs to take responsibility for listening to and contributing ideas. Look for ways to divide the work fairly and focus on the task. Providing constructive remarks and working to find solutions to disagreements can help the entire team.

	Exemplary 8 –10 points	Accomplished 5 –7 points	Developing 1 –4 points	Points
Presentation to the King	Your presentation was highly detailed, neat, and very creative! You met or exceeded the minimum number of required elements. Your text and the topics you chose to show in your presentation demonstrated that you have a very good understanding of the material. You used an appropriate amount of text on each slide, and you were mindful of your audience—the king!	You completed your presentation and included the minimum number of elements. A clear organization and more detail would have made your presentation even better, but you did a good job. Next time, think about what you can do to make your slides more engaging. For example, having a balance between text and images and keeping in mind a king is your audience will improve your presentation.	You produced a presentation that contained some of the required elements, but not all. More details and better organization would have helped your presentation. Think about how to better match your images to your text. Also, consider how to make your slides more readable. For example, having a balance between text and images and using colors that are easy to read will increase the king’s interest in your presentation.
Extra Credit	A well-written response is worth one point.	A well-written response is worth one point.	A well-written response is worth one point.
				SCORE