

the experience and it was fun. The dolphin that my family and I saw was a girl named Sasha.

At the end of the interaction, everyone watched as the three dolphins (Sasha, Jonas, and Hercules) all performed a finally show to conclude the experience. Everyone who went thought that it was awesome.

Places to Stay & Visit

Each resort or complex has a pool that everyone that stays there can go to. Many people have stayed at the resorts.

This is Harbor Side Resort. You rent a house and get to stay there.

The resorts are called Royal Tower, Beach Tower, Coral Tower and Harbor Side Resort. Many people enjoy staying there.

At each tower, there are many activities to do. At Royal Tower there is the Current ride and other water activities. At Coral Tower there is a library where you can read amazing books, play Scrabble with the family or even play on the computer. Beach Tower has the kid friendly activities like cooking classes and painting pottery.

There is a place called the Cove Atlantis. This is where the Mayan Temple water slide is. There are also a lot of mini water parks around this area.

The Reef Atlantis is where Dolphin Cay is. From here, you can visit the cool beach. Most of the aquariums are here and you will also find

Other Activities

You can also cook and paint pottery at Atlantis. These activities are good for when you want to do something else besides swimming.

Shops are everywhere in Atlantis. You can buy many things and look really good in them.

These activities are great for active kids and the food is yum, the pottery looks great and the kids are happy!

Both kids and adults will enjoy the wonders of Atlantis. Most kids who haven't gone say that they want to go at least once! The adults like to see their kids happy and they want to have fun, so... Atlantis is a place to have fun and relax! When you go there, make sure to try lots of activities, and have a load of fun!
